New Business: Planning Commission Recruiting

Discussed strategies for adding more people to the Planning Committee. Elaine discussed a "Meet and Greet" at the Asotin Post Office to interact with the community and talking about what the committee does and how to join. Also discussed the possibility of a booth at Asotin Days (August 8th) to recruit people to the committee. Elaine said she would work with Tina to put together a flyer to hand out.

Unfinished Business: Community attendees voiced their concerns in regard to the short plat at 320 Harding Street. The main concerns were with the easement that provides access to the short plat. Specifically, how taxes will change for the owners of the easement with improvements to the surrounding land and the land itself.

Discussed updates and changes to the new City Comprehensive Plan. The committee still needs updates from Gary on his assigned section of the plan. Tina will reach out to each member individually for the notes/changes to their assigned section.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:45 p.m.
